2. COMPLIANCE OFFICER:

The Board of the Company shall appoint the Company Secretary or any other person as the Compliance Officer to ensure compliance and for effective implementation of the Regulations and also this Code across the Company.

2.1. The Compliance Officer shall report to the board of directors of the Company and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, if any, or to the Chairman of the board of directors at such frequency as may be stipulated by the board of directors.

2.2. The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for setting forth the policies, procedures, maintenance of records, monitoring adherence to the rules for the preservation of unpublished price sensitive information, monitoring of trades and the implementation of the codes specified in these regulations under the overall supervision of the board of directors of the Company.

2.3. In the performance of his/her duties, the Compliance Officer shall have access to all information and documents relating to the Securities of the Company.

3. PRESERVATION OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

3.1 All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.

3.2 Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which entails:

- i. an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or
- ii. not attracting the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.

3.3 The Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

4. NEED TO KNOW BASIS

Price Sensitive Information of the Company is to be handled on a "need to know" basis i.e. should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or apprehension of misuse of the information. All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

5. LIMITED ACCESS TO CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

All manual/ Physical files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. All Computer files must have adequate security.

6. PREVENTION OF MISUSE OF "UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION"

6.1. Chinese Wall:

To prevent the misuse of unpublished price sensitive Information, the Company has adopted following norms for 'Chinese Wall' procedures which separates those departments which routinely have access to unpublished Price Sensitive Information, considered as inside area from those departments which deals with sale? Marketing or other departments providing support services, considered as public areas:

- i. The employees in the insider areas are not allowed to communicate any unpublished Price Sensitive Information to anyone in public area.
- ii. The employees in the insider areas may be physically separated from the employees in public area.
- iii. The demarcation of various departments as insider area shall be determined by the Managing Director.
- iv. Only in exceptional circumstances, Employees from public areas are brought over the wall and given unpublished Price Sensitive Information on need to know basis under intimation of Compliance Officer.

6.2. Trading Plan:

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

Trading Plan shall:

- i. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- ii. not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- iii. entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- iv. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- v. set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- vi. not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

The Compliance Officer shall consider the Trading Plan made as above and shall approve it forthwith. However, he shall be entitled to take expressed undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.

The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.

Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

For approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

7. TRADING WINDOW

7.1. The trading period, i.e. the trading period of the stock exchanges, called 'trading window', is available for trading in the Company's securities.

7.2. The trading window shall be, inter alia, closed 7 days prior to and during the time the unpublished price sensitive information is published.

7.3. The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the designated employees of the Company when he determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.

7.4. The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.

Other than the period(s) for which the Trading Window is closed as specified hereinabove, the same shall remain open for dealing in the Securities of the Company.

8. PRE CLEARANCE OF TRADE IN SECURITIES

8.1. All the persons covered by the Code who propose to acquire/sell Securities of the Company which are more than Rs. 10 Lacs in value or 50,000 shares or 1% of the total shareholding or voting rights, whichever is lower, should pre-clear the transaction. However, no designated person shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed and hence he shall not be allowed to trade. The pre-dealing procedure shall be hereunder:

- i. A Designated Person shall make a pre-clearance application to the Compliance Officer in the prescribed format in Annexure I along with an undertaking (Annexure II) stating that he/she has not contravened the provision of this Code.
- ii. If any person covered by the Code, obtained any Price Sensitive Information after executing the undertaking but prior to transacting in Securities of the Company, he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer and refrain from dealing in Securities of the Company.
- iii. All the persons covered by the Code shall execute their order within 7 Days of pre clearance of trade. If the transaction is not executed within 7 Days of such clearance, fresh approval of the Compliance Officer is required.

8.2. All Designated Persons shall conduct their dealings in the securities of the Company only in the “Valid Trading Window” period and shall not enter into “Contra Trade” i.e. opposite or reverse transactions, in the securities of the Company during the next six months following the prior transaction. The Compliance Officer is empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate these regulations. Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be discharged for remittance to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act. When the trading window is closed, the Specified Persons shall not trade in the Company’s securities in such period.

8.3. In the case of subscription in the primary market (initial public offers), the above mentioned entities shall hold their investments for a minimum period of 30 days. The holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted.

8.4. In case the sale of securities is necessitated by personal emergency the holding period may be waived by the Compliance Officer after recording in writing his reasons in this regard. The application for the waiver of the minimum period of holding of the securities shall be made by the employee in the format specified in Annexure V to this Code.

9. DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS

9.1. General:

- i. The disclosures to be made by any person under this code shall include those related to trading by such person’s immediate relatives, and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.
- ii. The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of Securities and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken in to account for purposes of this code.
- iii. The disclosures made under this code shall be maintained for a period of five years.

9.2. Initial Disclosure:
